2010 WARING AUCTION

Generosity Abounds in Waring Community

Following the lead taken at last year's Auction, this year's Auction Committee is striving to create an All-School Auction for the 2010 Waring Auction. While most of the proceeds from the April 24 Auction will go toward paying for the Junior Class Trip, the Committee hopes to raise enough funds to also support financial aid and to purchase items needed by the school for the entire Waring Community.

Last year, $7,500 was raised. This year, the Auction Committee's goal is to raise a significantly larger sum -- especially with what is turning out to be the most alluring auction item -- the Red Sox Luxury Box raffle. With more money raised, the annual fund will help cover scholarships, facility improvement and faculty benefits, but this can't be done without everyone's help. As Waring parents, you can help! If you or anyone you know has a business, advertising in the 2010 Waring Auction catalog is encouraged. It's a win-win with company exposure and benefits to the Waring annual fund (see form attached).

The Auction Committee invites everyone to volunteer to help make the Auction a success.

Come be part of the fun! Contact Joanne Avallon for more information, and to preview auction items, visit:

2010 WARING AUCTION ANNOUNCEMENT

Scoring the Red Sox Luxury Box

By now, the entire Waring community has heard about the most competitive auction item on the block for April 24: The Raffle for a Red Sox Luxury Box for the August 22 game against the Jays!

The box seats 22 people and has an indoor party room with kitchen and bathroom. Raffle tickets sell for $100 each, and many who are interested are pooling resources, buying one raffle ticket among a group of five, reducing the cost to $20 each—and ensuring at least five will have the opportunity to win the luxury box for August 22!

To keep score of the Raffle Ticket sales, a sign has been placed in the drop-off circle. Check it out to calculate your odds in the raffle!

DEBATE & SPEECH

Friday, 3/12: The Waring Public Forum Debate team of Lily Fitzgerald & Adam Levine will compete at the New England District tournament, held at Milton Academy.

College Bowl will compete on Tuesday, March 2, at Danvers HS. The team includes: Ellie Currie, Paul Hemberger, Sam Staples, Amanda Lewis, with Emma Bhenke, alternate.

YOUNG WRITERS' CONFERENCE

This annual event will take place at Waring on Friday and Saturday, March 5 & 6. On Friday afternoon, from 3:30-5:00, author Charlotte Gordon will be reading in the Polygon. This part of the conference is open to the Waring public.

Questions? email taverill@waringschool.org

MATHLETES

Tuesday, 3/9: New England Math League contest, HS Level.

PARKING at WARING

The front circle is a "NO PARKING" area, as is in front of the Barn. Please park ONLY in the main lot, in front of the gym, or beside the Quad. The Circle MUST be kept clear at all times.

Please do not park on the grass next to the parking lot. There are plenty of spaces and although you may be closer to the school buildings, the grass is becoming very worn.

JUNIOR FUNDRAISING

Cape Ann Whale Watch

Ready for some warm ocean breezes? Cape Ann Whale Watch tickets are available for purchase. You book your own date. There are not blackout dates, and the tickets never expire. Your cost is $20.00 for each ticket. (The regular rate is $45.00) Please contact Irene Pickering if you are interested in purchasing tickets.

Pendant

"L'esprit dans la vie – 'the spirit in the life' sums up the joie de vivre of the current Waring junior class. The spirit is combined with the symbol of a journey: the wheel. Whether it's short trips taken in Romulus or Remus or traveling to France and England or traveling outside of oneself through reading and imagination—being at Waring is all about the journey."

Designed by juniors Maggie Chandler and Devin Sullivan, the charm is brushed sterling silver with an antique finish. It is available in four different styles: pin, charm/pendant or keychain: $20 each; Or purchase a necklace on a black leather cord: $25.
